The council is made up of the House of Representatives and the Senate. The House of Representatives consists of one representative and one alternate selected by the individual homerooms. The Senate is made up of eleven seniors, nine juniors, seven sophomores, and five freshmen. These are elected by the popular vote of the classes.

Student Council sponsors the School Savings plan which enables a student to bank every Tuesday.

Dixie Day, an evening of free entertainment, consisting of a talent show and dance is sponsored annually by the Council. "Peanuts for Polio" sales were another of their projects this year.

The School Store, in its second year of operation, specializes in supplies for each class in school. It has been a profitable investment for the Student Council.

Tribe Talk reports a weekly account of school activities in a local newspaper. A member of the organization is selected to write for the entire year.

The organization is sponsored by Mrs. Sybil Murphy and Mr. Martin Nutt.

The Junior Red Cross has the largest membership enrollment of any club in Fair Park High School. There is one representative and alternate chosen from each class, who attends the meetings and reports back to the class. The Membership Drive which was carried on throughout the school has enlisted the majority of the student body. The club links our school with the state and national organization of the American Red Cross. Under the leadership of Mrs. J. Allen and Mrs. B. Taylor, the club has been able to carry on various activities.

The Junior Red Cross has sold telephone directories which list the students' names, addresses, phone numbers, and classifications. The club also sold corsages for the Thanksgiving football game to help finance the club activities. The club helps at the Confederate Memorial Hospital to roll bandages for burns and cuts. The club helps fill and send Christmas boxes to children of foreign lands. Junior Red Cross also makes tray favors for the Veterans Hospital.

The Fair Park Latin Club, Orbis Romanus, under the direction of Miss Annie Laurie Cook, is open to pupils interested in Latin.

Two meetings held each month feature programs dealing with the life and customs of early Romans.

Social interest of club members finds expression in four socials each school year. During National Latin week each spring, the entire Latin department, by means of posters, speeches, and an assembly program, focus attention to the fact that Latin is very much alive today.

LOS ALUMNOS FELICES

Through club programs, members of Los Alumnos Felices learn much of the way of life of our Spanish-speaking neighbors.

For its Christmas project, the group made tray favors for patients of a local hospital.

Each year the club enjoys a meal in a local Mexican restaurant, and an annual picnic held at Ford Park.

Pan-American Week, observed in April, is sponsored by The Happy Students. On Pan-American Day our cafeteria serves Mexican food and a "fiesta air" prevails.

Students interested in business education on an "on the job" training plan compose this club. The club members are young people who are working half-days under supervision while completing their formal training. The purpose of the club is to develop a healthy attitude toward professional growth in the business fields through discussions and lectures.

An "Employer-Employee" banquet highlights the year's activities complimenting the employers of the students. Each year the club sends delegates to the annual Distributive Education Convention. Gay Kimsey, Gene Hammock, Linda Calvert, June Gates, Pat Joshlin, Pat Bruce, Rubydeen Dickson, Allen Carroll, Glynn Morgan, Howard Sellers, Allen Miller, Pauline Morris, and Linda Tremble were accompanied by their sponsor, Mrs. Louise Monette, to Baton Rouge this year. This meeting afforded an opportunity to meet other students throughout the state in the program.

Students are employed in retail and wholesale selling, stock room and other clerical services, and other forms of business functions.

TRAINING IN LEADERSHIP

The only unit of the Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps in Louisiana is composed of boys from Byrd and Fair Park High Schools in Shreveport. Since its establishment in 1935 the R.O.T.C. has been striving to serve the principles of military training. The regiment of 12 companies is formed by six from each school. The regimental commander and his staff are chosen alternately every other year from these schools.

Activities of the unit are climaxed in the Spring Semester by Federal Inspection and the Military Ball.

One hundred twenty-five cadets attended Camp Shreve during the summer, the new Jr. R.O.T.C. Camp at Camp Polk. This was made possible by activities of the R.O.T.C. Parents Club, an organization formed to stimulate an interest among parents in the activities of their sons. This training accentuates marksmanship, leadership training and other qualities necessary in the development of good cadets.

DIXIE DRILL PLATOON

Platoon finds way out of spiral.

Fond memories of the Old South are always recalled with the appearance of the Dixie Drill Platoon. Adding a genuine Rebel touch to the Southern traditions, the Platoon proudly displayed their new Confederate uniforms at the Natchitoches Christmas Festival. They also took time off during the Christmas season from their rigorous schedule of practice and public appearances, to sing Christmas carols to their families.

The Platoon has shown great improvement under the capable leadership of Lieutenant Colonel James Key and Captain Joe Middleton, inspired by the supervision of M/Sgt. David Monk.

A new record in the history of the Drill Team was set when it participated in the Comus Parade in the New Orleans Mardi Gras festivities. This achievement emphasized the constant movement of the Platoon toward higher and better goals and ideals.

R I F L E T E A M

Bi-weekly practice develops marksmanship.

Pacing themselves from a rather slow beginning, the Rifle Team worked to co-ordinate its peak of perfection with the annual Arlington State Rifle Meet. With renewed self-confidence, each member of the team set out for Arlington with high spirits and visions of trophies in their minds.

The new additions to Fair Park's Rifle Team, with the aid of only three of last year's veterans, have supplied the missing links necessary for a strong team. This has been accomplished through stern determination, long hours of practice, and self-pride in the unit, which is under the direction of M/Sergeant Melvin Clark.

Receiving medals after the Joinerville Matches, the 23rd match this year, were D. Howard, R. Poston, D. Smith, H. Owens, J. Middleton, G. Culpepper, and D. Chellette. Individual score ratings gave Middleton third and Poston fifth places at this match.

OFFICERS AND SPONSORS CLUB

Sponsors fold flag after retreat.

Entertainment and social life is not the only ambition of the Officers and Sponsors Club. Giving them an opportunity to develop new friendships and the ability to get along with fellow cadets is another purpose.

Cooperation with R.O.T.C. Instructors and Junior R.O.T.C. Parents Club assists in obtaining congenial relationships.

This past year a Regimental open house and dance was held December 19, at the Shriners Club. Officers and Sponsors from Byrd and Fair Park attended.

MUSIC

FAIR PARK ORCHESTRA

Beginning in the year 1949 with an ensemble of string students led by Carl Tolbert, the orchestra has developed into what is now a well-organized program, involving some one hundred fifty students in its Symphonic, Intermediate, and Beginning groups. The orchestra, since 1952, has been under the direction of Arthur Benoy.

The Salon orchestra, a thirteen piece ensemble selected from the Advanced Orchestra, performs for Civic Clubs and other worthy organizations.

Yearly functions of the Orchestra consist of concerts, tours, and parties.

Many of the responsibilities of a well concerted organization rest upon the shoulders of the Concert Mistress. Phyllis Simmons has proved to be both able and competent in fulfilling these duties.

Truly, the orchestra has proved itself to be a cultural asset to the school and the community.

FAIR PARK CONCERT BAND

The Concert Band is the finest of the four bands rehearsing daily at Fair Park High School. Through this band the members become familiar with the greatest music. Several times each year they are presented in concert.

The Concert Band also is a fine marching unit which appears regularly in parades and football games.

Because of its high standards of performance, many of its senior members are sought after by the college bands of the area. The Fair Park bands are directed by Walter C. Minniear.

The officers of the band are: Captain, John Dunham; 1st Lieutenants, John Minniear and Sarah Baucum; 2nd Lieutenants, Phyllis Simmons and Billy Miller.

A singular honor for the band this year was to have one of its members, John Minniear, chosen to play in the Golden Anniversary Band of the Music Educators National Conference which will meet in St. Louis, Missouri, in April, 1956.

THE PASTELS

Melvyn Riche has for the past three years featured the Pastels and soloists regularly in the classics of sacred music as well as outstanding choral compositions of the standard category along with strictly popular numbers.

There is no classifying the Pastels who so skillfully sing everything from popular dance tunes of the moment to the classics.

In tonal quality, the Pastels have an unusual beauty.

This group is made up of twenty girls who are selected from the members of the Girls Glee Club.

The Pastels, who are popular throughout the city, are often called upon to sing for various church programs, school functions, and luncheon clubs.

Two special events of the year at which the Pastels were presented were the Future Farmers of America Ball and the Fair Park Mardi Gras.

A large group of students pool their efforts to place, within the covers of a book, the events of one year at Fair Park. One group undertakes the job of supplementing the money brought in by subscriptions by selling advertising space. The second group handles the circulation of the book within the student body. Designing the book, picture making and copy writing is taken over by the third group. Magnifying the conscientious efforts of each member brought about the 1956 Sequoyah.

The advertising staff worked under the supervision of two sponsors, Miss Earlene Jordan and Mrs. Daisy Isgett. The circulation staff depended upon Mrs. Ouida McClellan for direction. Mrs. Nelle May Hearn sponsored the Editorial group. Students earn their positions on the staff by past performance and experience.

THE 1956 POW WOW

The Pow Wow is a monthly newspaper which mirrors the events happening daily in our school life. It is under the faculty supervision of Miss De Lane Smith.

The staff members, sophomores, juniors, and seniors, are chosen because of their academic ability and interest in journalism.

The Pow Wow gives an unbiased report of all school activities.

This fall the staff went to the L. S. P. A. conference on the L. S. U. campus. Nancy Allenbaugh won a trophy in the sports writing contest. They also participated in the clinic at Northeast State College in Monroe in April 1955.

Feature stories and special columns about students in school and alumni have added much interest in this year's paper. The Pow Wow was given a first award rating at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Clinic this year. This is the first time the Pow Wow has been sent to this particular clinic.

Miss De Lane Smith has been supervising the Editorial Staff this past year for her first time.

The day before a Pow Wow comes out finds Miss Smith, C. Crain, and N. Allenbaugh working late.

THE 1956 PAPOOSE

The Papoose, a classroom publication, has completed its third consecutive year of existence. This small paper was originated by Mrs. Nema Henry, who has remained its sponsor.

Through this periodical, each student interested in newspaper work, strives to develop individual skills in the journalistic styles of writing, and the ability to work co-operatively with their classmates. Besides journalism, the art of correct parliamentary procedure is highly stressed. The Papoose is a small mimeographed paper written and edited by Sophomore English classes. Included in the paper are articles concerning current school events, editorials, jokes, poetry and art work.

The work done by the staff members is actually a basic training toward higher positions on other various school publications.

FOOTBALL PROGRAM AD STAFF

Working through the summer months, the Football Ad Staff provides the football enthusiasts an interesting and informative program at all of the games. The group had its beginning in 1936 and has continued serving the school promoting good will between it and the community whenever they could. The program began as a four page folder and has increased upon demand until forty pages now present information concerning each player upon the team and its coaches.

Since this group is composed of senior girls they select replacements to assist their sponsor, Miss Loryne Martin, with the following year's program planning. Due to their strenuous work in the fall, parties and other socials are held in the spring.

Dear Bobby,

You are a cute and sweet boy and I have thoroughly enjoyed knowing you. As for a date, I've never had any more fun with any other boy than you. I'm sorry we never got together for any length of time. I was always busy or something but anyway let's do it. I'm ready to go dancing and just waiting for an invite. Stay as you are and you will go far in T.C. U. Maybe you'll be ready when we are there. Never forget and I won't you!!

Love always,

REVIEWING '55 FOOTBALL SEASON

With the opening of football season, Fair Park stood as the state 1AAA favorites. During the course of the season, the rating fell as low as sixth place but usually remained between second and fourth.

The Tribe defeated ten of their thirteen opponents and went into the state finals on December 9 against Istrouma after downing Lake Charles in the semi-finals.

During the playoff games neighboring schools in North Louisiana as well as in the Parish supported Fair Park. Each former foe became a friend hoping Fair Park would bring the State Championship into our locality.

Despite their dogged efforts, the Indians went down before Istrouma but remained North Louisiana champs and state runner-up.

INDIANS BEAT WILDCATS, 20-6

December 2 . . . Tonight at the State Fair Stadium approximately 12,000 spectators watched the Indians roar past the Wildcats 20-6. In the first period Eddie Dunn and Don Mullins alternated the ball until they reached the one where Dunn pushed across the first score. The extra point was provided by Ray Sparks.

The Wildcats rallied to push one across in the same quarter but the extra point attempt failed.

As the second period came into view Dunn, Jimmy Orton, Wayne Walker and Mullins combined to move the ball from the 30 to the two where two line attempts failed. Orton resorted to passing and Bandaries snared one from the fingertips of two Wildcats in the end zone.

This was all the scoring in the second period and the score stood 13-6 at halftime.

At the opening of the third period Fair Park received the kickoff and from their own 38 moved on short gains by Dunn and Mullins until a 41-yard jaunt by Dunn moved the ball to the Wildcat five. Mullins legged the final five yards and Sparks added the P.A.T.

This closes the scoring for the remainder of the game and the Tribe goes to the state 1-AAA finals, 20-6.

ISTROUMA DEFEATS FAIR PARK 40-6

December 9 . . . 18,000 spectators watched as the Fair Park Indians put up a losing battle against the Istrouma Indians here tonight at the State Fair Stadium.

After several exchanges of the pigskin when each side failed to make headway, Istrouma finally succeeded in clubbing their way into the Tribe end zone.

Fair Park was on the short end of a 7-0 score at the end of the first quarter but looked as if they had a drive started early in the second. They crowded their way down to the Istrouma 17 only to have it fade out when three pass attempts failed.

The ball exchanged hands again several more times before Istrouma tallied again. A Fair Park rally died on the Istrouma 14 when, again, several passes never found friendly hands. Intermission stopped the activity.

Istrouma capitalized on a Tribe fumble and scored again in two and a half minutes leaving the score 21-0.

Despite the sweating efforts of the Indians, Istrouma chalked up another seven points in the third stanza.

The lone Fair Park marker came on a 67-yard drive in the final quarter as Don Mullins, Wayne Walker, Eddie Dunn, and Jimmy Orton literally hammered their way through the Istrouma line. The persistent Istrouma boys managed to score twelve points in the final minutes of the game and leave with the state I-AAA championship.

BASKETBALL

Ludwig gets the tip-off.

Bearcats have a hard time against Bandaries and Greene.

Starting late after a long football season, the Indians dropped six of their first seven games to very stiff competition.

After losing the opening game to Bossier on December 12, the Tribe returned from Istrouma with their first win on the sixteenth. They turned up on the short end of the next five games, losing to Baton Rouge, Marshall, Minden, Many, and Minden, finally taking Marshall on January 5. As if they were hitting a hot streak, the Indians left the floor the victors of the next three games topping Haynesville, Springhill and Bienville.

Sharing the scoring honors, with the support of the entire squad, were such sharpies as Ludwig Bandaries, Billy Green, Jimmy Orton and Cecil Winn.

Fair Park was nudged by Ruston in the final game of the Centenary Tournament but came back strong to down Springhill a second time and North Caddo two days later.

While attending the home games, the Fair Park Honor Legion is doing a fine job on the moral support side of the scraps.

In the Minden Tournament, the Fair Parkers were edged out by Doyline but humbled Byrd three days later.

Through thick and thin of the mighty din were such floor men as Don Meisner, Austin Robertson, John Dunham, Mickey Shirley, Bill Edmondson and Gary Lauter.

North Caddo and Hall Summit bowed to the home boys before they were knocked by Minden. The latter two games were played in the Bossier Tournament on January 28. The fired-up Indians now took the next four games as they charged over St. John's, Bossier, Haynesville and Byrd.

Other names to be noted on the F. P. squad are Leon Parker, Bobby Gouthiere, Benny Thomas, and Pat Booker, all of whom will be among the eight men returning next year.

With the final victory over Byrd, the Fair Park Indians stood the I-AAA Western division champs and went on to play Ouachita for the District championship. This was the hardest defeat to take because we were squeezed out by one point. The final game was with Byrd which our boys took with a 55-50 score.

Gaining valuable experience and training on the road to Varsity play, members of the "B" squad are a vital part of Fair Park basketball. Featured "long Johns" on the squad include such men as Bobby Gouthiere, Gary Lauter, John Scotto, and Leon Parker who have shown their worth by being high in scoring for the season.

Completing the lineup are Larry Heard, Max Weeks, and Ronnie Ruth.

Besides their work on the "B" squad most of the members are on a "stand by" for the Varsity games.

Dear Bobbie,

I have really enjoyed knowing and being around you this year. It has meant alot to me.

I have never gone with a sweetier more than you.

As you are about to graduate and take a big step into this "big" wide world please stay as sweet as you are now.

As you take this big step please don't forget to be a Christian.

We had a lot a great times together this year. I think you just about one of the finest boys any mother could be blessed with. As you go to college and get to drive a wheel I hope you will remember me. as I will always remember you. I counted it an honor to go with you this year.

Even though we won't be seeing much of each other next year I hope you will let me hear from you and tell me how everybody is treating you.

Well Mr. Packard is giving us our final so I guess I will bless. I will

FAIR PARK MISSES

MARY ALICE RAINS

A trim senior with quiet charm came into the glow of the spotlight as a Fair Park Miss and 1st Lt. Sponsor of Company "E."

Mary has won the admiration on the campus through club activities and singing.

MARGARET BECK

A gracious, unassuming, vivacious blonde who has that fresh, young, glowing beauty which makes everyone look a second time to make sure she is not one of the beautiful figurines she collects.

Margaret contributes her bit to school life having served her third year as cheerleader.

MARY ANN MCCAA

The "little Miss" this year, a petite brunette freshman, everyone is fast taking to their hearts at F. P. H. S. Pretty is as pretty does is an old adage, but oh, so true about Mary Ann.

PATRICIA ANN BEATTIE

A sophisticated blonde charmer who at times leaves everyone a little breathless. Couldn't be that the anticipated rustle of satin and swish of velvet is caused since Pat has been a Fair Park Miss for each of her four years in high school.

SENIOR FAVORITES

*Bobby, It's really

ALLEN RIEGEL

Reviewing the four years, Allen began playing football on the Freshman Team and progressed to the "B" Team his Sophomore year. As a Junior and Senior he played as right halfback on the Varsity Squad. Track having claimed Allen's interest each Spring resulted in his election as Captain of the squad in 1955. At the end of his third year in R.O.T.C. he acts as 1st Lt. of Company "F." His well-rounded program of studies predestined his selection as one of the top twenty seniors.

*Kad!
Love ya, Melody*

MELODY BROWN

To be chosen as a Class Favorite is an honor coveted by all girls in Fair Park. To be so honored two consecutive years is an exception. Since entering high school, Melody has served as a Lady of the Mardi Gras Court in 1954 and as Princess in 1956. During her four years in high school she has majored in the commercial department, has participated in many departmental clubs and served on the Student Council, also on the Football Program Staff.

JUNIOR FAVORITES

JEANNE KELSO

Her classmates elected Jeanne Kelso Lady to the Mardi Gras Court her Freshman and Sophomore years. She was elected one of the top six in the Fair Park Misses Contest as a Sophomore but has served for her first time as cheerleader for her class this year. This is the second time Jeanne's classmates selected her their Favorite.

DON MULLINS

A varsity football player Don Mullins has played his second season as halfback for Fair Park. He has carved himself a spot on the basketball team. Rounding out the school year, Don participates in dashes, relays, and hurdle jumping on the track team. He was selected Favorite his Junior year. He has served as representative in both the Student Council and Junior Red Cross.

SOPHOMORE FAVORITES

GARY LAUTER

Gary began an athletic career on the campus his freshman year when he played on the Ninth Grade football team. This year he played halfback on the Varsity team. Basketball has kept him busy during each Spring season. He was selected a Lord in the Mardi Gras Court during his freshman year, and has been elected Favorite of his class for the second consecutive time.

CAROLYN BRUNER

Making a booming beginning her Freshman year at Fair Park, Carolyn Bruner was elected Freshman Cheerleader and Lady to the Mardi Gras Court and one of the top twelve on the Fair Park Misses ballot. This year Carolyn has served her class again as cheerleader and was elected the Sophomore Favorite. She is one of the sixth period library assistants and takes an active part in club work.

FRESHMAN FAVORITES

NANCY McCOMIC

An attractive brunette making her debut at Fair Park this year, has taken part as a Student Council Representative and as Freshman Class Favorite. She likes to sing and cook equally as well. Her sparkling smile is winning her many friends outside of the Freshman class.

CHARLES BOUTTE

A new comer to Fair Park this year, Charles has been accorded three honors. He was elected a Senator to the Student Council during the fall term, elected a Freshman Boy Favorite, and a Lord in Mardi Gras Court.

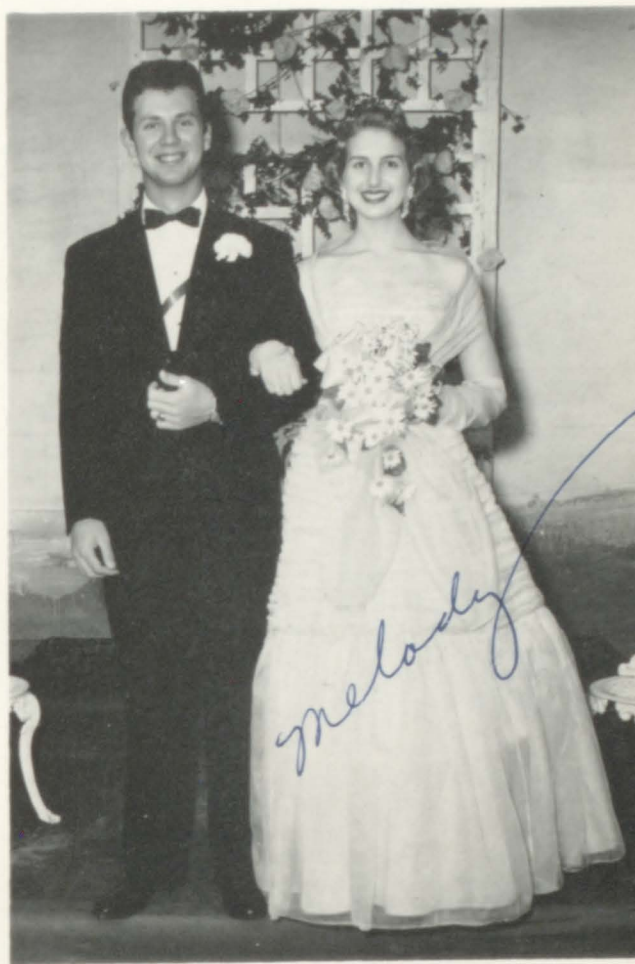

MARDI GRAS

QUEEN PAT JAMES

KING RAY SPARKS

A preview of spring was experienced by the spectators at Mardi Gras. The court gathered in a wonderland of flowers where giant butterflies danced above the heads of the courtiers. Pat James was escorted to the throne by King Ray Sparks where he placed the crown upon her head and proclaimed her Queen of the 1956 Mardi Gras. The Queen was gowned in a white organdy garden frock with the traditional flowing satin train fastened at the shoulders. Her trainbearers were tiny Misses Kandis Martin and Beverly Reeves, identically dressed in shell pink organdy ankle length frocks. . . . Princess Melody Brown wearing an orchid organdy garden dress approached the throne escorted by Prince Bobby Scriber, and was seated upon the Queen's right and the Prince to the King's left to view the festivities. . . . Six ladies with their lords were seated in a half circle to complete the court. These girls were identically dressed in aqua organdy patterned like the young Princess' gown. Each carried a matching aqua organdy parasol festooned with garlands of pink carnations and silver ribbons. . . . Master Gregory McCarthy, dressed in an immaculate white linen suit, carried the rhinestone crown upon its satin pillow to the King for the crowning ceremony. . . . The program for the Queen's and King's enjoyment was unique. Emerging from the enormous baskets of flowers at either side of the stage six girls from the Pastel Chorus took their places at center stage. Each carried bouquets of flowers they represented from the Spring garden, and were attired in frocks of corresponding colors.

The sextette presented a medley of love songs. The first of three dance numbers was a ballet by the girls physical education department. Followed by three couples, Jo Carbone, Jim Dowden, Barbara Henson, Don Meisner, Jean Brocato, and Rex Mayfield, in a tango number. Patti Sue Wilson and Roy Joe True, costumed in fluorescent Latin American dress, presented a daring mambo number. A ball honoring the Queen concluded the Mardi Gras festivities. . . . The stage sets were made by the woodworking department under the supervision of Mr. L. L. Reeves. The painting was done by Mrs. Grace Gray's art classes. The huge song birds scattered over the walls of the auditorium were designed by the same group. All dancers were coached by Mrs. N. Lindsay, Miss M. Harrison and Mrs. B. Martin.

PELICAN STATES

Half wait for other half to board train.

All night sessions reduce us to this!

Each spring teachers select junior students to attend Pelican State during the following summer. Individual qualities of scholarship, leadership, and personality are considered.

Twelve boys and ten girls are chosen to represent Fair Park. The delegates from all Louisiana schools meet in Baton Rouge. The number of delegates sent depends on the school's enrollment.

Girl Staters march to the Capitol.

The citizenship training is both theoretical and actual. The chief instruction period takes place on L. S. U.'s Campus. General assemblies, state campaign speeches and the state election are held in the Law Building. Visits to the state capitol to observe the Legislature in progress lends authenticity.

This opportunity for students to develop in government procedures is made possible by the American Legion Chapters.

Each year when the work on the yearbook is finished the members of the staff gather for an evening's recreation and a banquet with co-workers and their dates.

This year, like others before it, the night of March 1 found everyone in a gay mood. The head table held a large cake decorated to represent the yearbook so recently completed. The program consisted of musical numbers, singing and an impersonation which amused everyone. The team from the Ad Staff who had held the best record selling was recognized. An informal dance concluded the evening's entertainment.

Dear Bobby.

I hope we have another class like miss Browns.
Because I don't think I can make it.

We sure did have trouble on that football team didn't
we. Sit em out, sit em out.

See you later, much later.

Sincerely Jerome Butler
